Policy

Identification of Potential Related Party Transactions

Each Director and Key Managerial Personnel (KMP) shall, at the beginning of every financial year, provide to the Company a notice of his interest or concern in the entities, which are considered as Related Party, along with the list of Relatives in the prescribed form and further changes, if any, shall also be intimated in the same manner immediately by way of giving a notice of change in the nature of his or her interest or concern.

Each Director as well as KMP shall inform in advance to the Company of any potential Related Party Transaction involving him or her or his or her Relative / Related Party, including any additional information about the transaction that the Board/Audit Committee may reasonably request. The Board/Audit Committee will determine whether the transaction does, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this Policy.

Approval Matrix

Overall framework of Approval for Related Party Transactions

Level 1 - Audit committee Approval

- All Related Party Transactions and any subsequent Material Modifications shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company and only those members of the Audit Committee, who are Independent Directors, shall approve such Related Party Transactions.
- A related party transaction above rupees one crore, whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, to which the subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, shall require prior approval of the audit committee of the Company if the value of such transaction, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - ten percent of the annual standalone turnover of the subsidiary as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary; or

- the threshold for material related party transactions of the Company specified in Schedule XII of the Listing regulations.
- Provided further that a related party transaction above rupees one crore, whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, to which the subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, and such subsidiary does not have audited financial statements for a period of at least one year, shall require prior approval of the audit committee of the Company shall be obtained if the value of such transaction, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - ten percent of the aggregate value of paid-up share capital and securities premium account of the subsidiary; or
 - the threshold for material related party transactions of the Company as specified in Schedule XII of the Listing Regulations.

Explanation: The aggregate value of paid-up share capital and securities premium account of the subsidiary shall be taken as on a date, not older than three months prior to the date of seeking approval of the Audit Committee.

- As and when become applicable, the prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company shall not be required for a Related Party Transaction to which the listed subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 of the Listing Regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary of the Company.
- As and when become applicable, the prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company shall not be required for a Related Party Transaction to which an unlisted subsidiary of the listed subsidiary of the Company is a party but the listed subsidiary of the Company is not a party, the prior approval of the Audit Committee of the listed subsidiary shall suffice.
- Prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company shall not be required for (a) Related Party Transactions entered into between the Company, being a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with the holding company and placed before the shareholders of the holding company at their general meeting for approval; and (b) Related Party Transactions entered into between two wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company, being a holding company, whose accounts are consolidated with the holding company and placed before the shareholders of the holding company at their general meeting for approval.
- The transactions in the nature of remuneration and sitting fees paid by the Company or its subsidiaries to its Directors, Key Managerial Personnel or Senior Management who are not a part of promoter or promoter group, shall not require the approval of the Audit Committee provided that the same is not a material related party transaction under the Listing Regulations.

Audit Committee - Omnibus Approval

The Audit Committee shall grant Omnibus Approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company or its subsidiary, subject to the following conditions:

- Criteria for granting omnibus approval has been laid down by the Audit Committee under Rule 6A of the Companies (Meetings of Board & Its Powers) Rules, 2014 and Regulation 23 of Listing Regulations (as amended) with the requisite approval of the Board;
- The transactions in respect of which the Omnibus Approval is proposed to be granted are of repetitive in nature;
- the Audit Committee shall satisfy itself regarding the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company;
- the Omnibus Approval shall contain the following information:
 - Name(s) of the Related Party, nature of relationship with such Related Party;
 - Nature of transaction, period of transaction;
 - Maximum amount of transactions;
 - the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any;
 - such other conditions as the audit committee may deem fit.

Where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding rupees one crore per transaction.

The Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the details of Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company or its subsidiary pursuant to each of the omnibus approvals given.

The Omnibus Approval granted by the Audit Committee shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of one year.

Provided further that the members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the audit committee, whichever is earlier, subject to the following conditions:

- a) the value of the ratified transaction(s) with a related party, whether entered into individually or taken together, during a financial year shall not exceed rupees one crore.
- b) The transaction is not a material related party transaction under the Listing Regulations.

- c) The rationale for inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the audit committee at the time of seeking ratification.
- d) the details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions to the stock exchanges as required under Listing Regulations.
- e) any other condition as specified by the audit committee from time to time.

Provided that failure to seek ratification of the Audit Committee shall render the transaction voidable at the option of the Audit Committee and if the transaction is with a related party to any director, or is authorised by any other director, the director(s) concerned shall indemnify the company against any loss incurred by it.

Provided that where any material related party transaction under the Companies Act is entered into by a director or any other employee, without obtaining the approval by a resolution in the general meeting and if it is not ratified by the shareholders at a meeting within three months from the date on which such related party transaction was entered into, such related party transaction shall be voidable at the option of the shareholders.

- Prior approval of the shareholders shall not be required for (a) Related Party Transactions entered into between the Company, being a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with the holding company and placed before the shareholders of the holding company at their general meeting for approval; and (b) Related Party Transactions entered into between two wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company, being a holding company, whose accounts are consolidated with the holding company and placed before the shareholders of the holding company at their general meeting for approval.
- As and when become applicable, prior approval of the shareholders of the Company, being a holding company, shall not be required for a Related Party Transaction to which the listed subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 of these regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary.
- As and when become applicable, prior approval of the shareholders of the listed subsidiary of the Company shall suffice for a Related Party Transaction to which an unlisted subsidiary of a listed subsidiary of the Company is a party but the listed subsidiary is not a party.

- All the relevant information / details required under the Companies Act and the Listing Regulations read with the notifications and circulars issued from time to time by SEBI / Stock Exchange(s) / any other authority regarding the related party transaction shall be provided to the shareholders in the manner as prescribed under the Act and the Listing Regulations.

Exemption:

The following Related Party Transactions shall not require the approval of Audit Committee or Board of Directors or Shareholders of the Company:

- Any transaction(s) that involves the payment of compensation to a Director or Key Managerial Personnel in connection with provision of his or her duties to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Associates, including the reimbursement of reasonable business and travel expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business;
- Any transaction(s) in which the Related Party's interest arises solely from ownership of securities issued by the Company and all holders of such securities receive the same benefits pro rata as the Related Party;
- Any other transactions with Related Parties which are not considered as "Related Party Transactions" under the Act and the Listing Regulations

Procedure for review and approval of Related Party Transactions

- Every Related Party Transaction shall be subject to the prior approval of the Audit Committee whether at a meeting or by resolution by way of circulation, as permitted under the Act or Listing Regulations.
- Audit Committee of the Company shall be provided with all requisite information in accordance with Rule 6A of the Companies (Meetings of the Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 (as amended) read with Regulation 23 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/CMD1/CIR/P/2021/662 dated 22/11/2021 and SEBI Master Circular HO/49/14/14(7)2025-CFD-POD2/I/3762/2026 dated 30/01/2026 or such other circulars, guidelines, directions, notifications etc. issued under the Act and the Listing Regulations from time to time and such other information, as the Audit Committee may seek for, while granting its approval under this policy.
- If a transaction has been identified as Related Party Transaction, the same shall require the prior approval of the Audit Committee and it shall make necessary recommendation to the Board of Directors. The Board shall take into account the recommendation of the Audit Committee and grant its approval, with or without any modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances. The Board shall also be provided with all requisite information in accordance with Rule 6A of the Companies (Meetings of the Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 (as amended) read with Regulation 23 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/CMD1/CIR/P/2021/662 dated 22/11/2021 and SEBI Master Circular HO/49/14/14(7)2025-CFD-POD2/I/3762/2026 dated 30/01/2026 or such other circulars, guidelines, directions, notifications etc. issued under the Act and the Listing Regulations from time to time and such other information, as the Board may seek for, while granting its approval under this policy.

- Every Director or Key Managerial Personnel shall duly disclose the nature of his / her interest or concern, if any, to the Audit Committee or Board, as applicable, while the approval for a Related Party Transaction, in which he or she is interested or concerned, is considered and such interested Director(s) shall provide all requisite information as may be required by the Audit Committee or Board in the said connection but shall neither participate in the discussion nor vote on such resolution.
- The Audit Committee of the Company shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, all the Related Party Transactions entered pursuant to its Omnibus Approval.
- In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction or not, the Audit Committee / Board may consider the following factors, among others, to the extent relevant to the Related Party Transaction:
 - Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are on an arm's-length basis and the terms and conditions of such transaction are similar with that of the transaction with an un-related third party;
 - Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Transaction with the related party and any other alternative source of supply / service is available;
 - Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of an Independent Director;
 - Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk that may arise as a result of or in connection with the proposed transaction;
 - Whether the Company was notified about the Related Party Transaction before its commencement and if not, why pre-approval was not sought and whether subsequent ratification would be detrimental to the Company;
 - Whether the Related Party Transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any Director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company; and
 - any other information relevant or important to take a decision on the proposed transaction.

Identification of Potential Related Party Transactions

- Every Director/Key Managerial Personnel shall be responsible for providing written notice in the prescribed form to the Compliance Officer of any potential Related Party Transaction involving him or her or his or her Relatives, including any additional information or disclosure about the transaction that the Compliance Officer may reasonably request in this connection. The Compliance Officer, in consultation with other members of management and with the Audit Committee, as appropriate, shall determine whether the transaction does, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this Policy.
- Every Director/ Key Managerial Personnel of the Company who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, concerned or interested in a contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement entered into or to be entered into shall disclose the nature of his concern or interest at the meeting of the Board in which the contract or arrangement is discussed and shall not participate in or exercise influence over any such meeting.

- Where any Director/ Key Managerial Personnel, who is not concerned or interested at the time of entering into such contract or arrangement, he shall, if he becomes concerned or interested after the contract or arrangement is entered into, shall promptly disclose his/her nature of concern or interest, immediately when he/she becomes concerned or interested or at the first meeting of the Board held after he/she becomes concerned or interested.
- A transaction or contract or arrangement entered into by the Company without disclosure or with participation by a Director / Key Managerial Personnel who is concerned or interested in any way, directly or indirectly, in the contract or arrangement, shall be voidable at the option of the Company.
- The Company strongly prefers to receive such notice of any potential Related Party Transaction well in advance so that the Compliance Officer has adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed transaction and other matter(s) incidental thereto and to refer it to the appropriate approval authority. Ratification of a Related Party Transaction after its commencement or even its completion may be appropriate in some circumstances, as permitted under the Companies Act or Listing Regulations, as applicable and for the time being in force.

Related Party Transactions When Not Approved Under This Policy

In the event the Company becomes aware of a Transaction with a Related Party that has not been approved under this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee at the earliest possible.

The Audit Committee shall consider all the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction, as permitted under the Companies Act or Listing Regulations. The Audit Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such Related Party Transaction to the Audit Committee under this Policy and shall take any such action it deems appropriate, as permitted under the Companies Act or Listing Regulations.

Where the Audit Committee determines not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without approval, the Audit Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or rescission of the transaction. In connection with any review of a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy subject to the compliance of statutory requirements.

In the above cases, the Audit Committee shall place its recommendations to the Board for its approval.

Where any transaction or contract or arrangement is entered into by a Director or KMP, without obtaining the prior approval of the Audit Committee or Board, as required above and if it is not ratified by the Audit Committee or Board within three months from the date on which such contract or arrangement was entered, shall be dealt as per Section 188 of the Companies Act and Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations.

Amendment to the Policy

The Board on its own and/or on the recommendations of the Audit Committee can amend this policy, as and it deems fit.

In case of any amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. issued by the competent authorities, not being consistent with the provisions laid down under this Policy, then such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. shall prevail and this policy shall stand amended accordingly without any further action, from the effective date as laid down under such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc.

Disclosure

1. This Policy will be communicated to all the operational employees and other concerned persons of the Company.
2. Details of all material transactions with related parties shall be disclosed quarterly along with the compliance report on corporate governance.
3. Every material transaction or contract or arrangement entered with the Related Party, covered under Section 188(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 shall be referred to in the Board's report to the shareholders along with the justification for entering into such contract or arrangement.
4. The Company shall disclose the policy on dealing with Related Party Transactions on its website and a web link thereto shall be provided in the Annual Report.
5. The Company shall disclose the name of the related party, the nature of relationship, the transaction details and such other details as required under the applicable Accounting Standards, in the Annual Report
6. The Company shall submit to the stock exchanges disclosures of related party transactions in the format as specified by the Board from time to time, within the stipulated time and publish the same on its website
7. The Company shall keep one or more registers giving separately the particulars of all contracts or arrangements with any related party in compliance with the Companies Act, 2013.
